WINTER 2025

January, February

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ,
the new creation has come: The old
has gone, the new is here!”

~2 Corinthians 5:17

Happy New Year! Every new year invites us to reflect on our journey and God's guidance. New beginnings remind us that in Christ, we are continually renewed. No matter what's happened in our past, we can fully trust in God's redeeming and transformative power which ultimately anchors our identity in Him. Through Christ, we are encouraged to embrace the new life that is offered through our relationship with Him. May this new year be filled with new beginnings for you and the opportunity to leave the old behind.

Book Suggestion

The Pursuit of God by A.W. Tozer

This classic novel explores the idea that God is active and seeks to reveal Himself to others who earnestly seek Him and desire to know Him.

Tozer inspires readers to cultivate a desire for God's presence and encourages others to seek Him beyond religious traditions that allows us to pursue a life of holiness and intimacy with Him.

Bible Study Suggestion

Breaking Free by Beth Moore

Beth Moore discusses spiritual freedom as a theme in the lives of the Israelites' through their journey out of Egypt and the obstacles they face in the wilderness. She examines how God offers freedom from strongholds and spiritual bondage by surrendering to His will and walking in the identity of Christ.
